Bashall Barn

Bashall Barn is an exclusive and unique wedding venue with panoramic views across the Ribble Valley. From beautifully designed suites to a dedicated wedding team, stunning location, and outdoor ceremony area, Bashall Barn truly is the perfect backdrop for your special day.

Our exclusive-use venue can accommodate between 50-130 seated guests for your ceremony and wedding breakfast with up to 200 guests for your evening reception.

Browsholme Hall

Built in 1507 and steeped in history, Browsholme Hall is the oldest surviving family home in Lancashire. Close to the house itself the 17C stone Tithe Barn has been restored and converted into a totally unique venue for weddings and receptions for 120 – 200 guests.

Civil ceremonies and Partnerships can be held in the Tithe Barn or the beautiful Regency Drawing Room within Browsholme Hall itself. The Tithe Barn holds a licence for 120 guests and the Drawing room up to 60 guests. Alternatively, say 'I do' at our outside ceremony area; the Lily Pond, overlooking the Browsholme estate.

Calf's Head

The Calf's Head is a charming country inn nestled at the foot of Pendle with breath-taking views and large gardens. We boast a welcoming bar with a roaring log fire, a glass house for ceremonies and a private function room.

We can accommodate 10 – 95 guests for your wedding breakfast and up to 120 for your evening reception. We are licenced for civil ceremonies both in our large glass house and in the garden gazebo overlooking Pendle Hill.

The Calf's Head also has 12 homely en-suite bedrooms to accommodate your guests.

Eaves Hall

A magnificent Georgian-style mansion available for your exclusive use on your wedding day. Standing in 13 acres of superbly kept gardens and grounds Eaves Hall really does present the most picture perfect backdrop for your celebrations. We can accommodate 120 guests for the wedding breakfast and up to 250 for the evening reception. Plus there are thirty bedrooms, including several superb suites, and a luxury lodge for everyone to stay over.

Gibbon Bridge

Gibbon Bridge Hotel is the jewel in the Crown of the Ribble Valley with an established reputation for comfort, good food and professional service. It is a unique setting for your perfect day offering exclusivity and accommodation for your guests. The rolling fells offer a stunning backdrop to the beautiful gardens and bandstand which is licensed for outdoor weddings. Should you prefer, or if the weather proves challenging, the light and airy Orangery is the perfect alternative.

Relax on the terrace with your guests, sip champagne and enjoy the scenery whilst your photographer captures the smiles and memories of your big day!

Higher Trapp House

Situated just a short distance from Pendle Hill, the Higher Trapp House is one of the most exceptional wedding venues in the Ribble Valley. Our stunning venue offers many distinctive features, from the traditional oak staircase, cosy fireplaces and original leaded windows, to the glorious Pagoda in our lush gardens with perfectly manicured lawns, where you can also hold your ceremony. Exclusive use for your special day is available.

Drawing on years of experience and with a passion and flair, we will be with you every step of the way to help deliver your perfect wedding!

Holmes Mill

Your special day deserves a special setting, and the Cotton Room at Holmes Mill Party is just that. The Mill's renovation has retained all of the industrial architecture of the 1800's but with all of the features you'd expect from a James' Places venue.

Inside, think beamed ceilings, exposed walls, and more than a touch of industrial chic to make your wedding, and photographs, truly spectacular. Licensed for civil ceremonies for between 50 - 150 guests and with a range of menu options for your wedding breakfast and evening reception, it really is the perfect choice.

Fall in love with Ribble Valley

Ribble Valley is one of those places with which you will fall in love, and want to return to again and again. It is acknowledged as one of the most popular places in the country to both live and work, and it is set within a nationally recognised Area of Outstanding Beauty.

Quintessentially English, the Ribble Valley represents all that is good about Britain – locally sourced food, rich heritage, strong traditions, stunning landscapes and a very warm welcome to anyone who visits.

With so much on offer, one day in the Ribble Valley is simply not enough. But with a range of accommodation from immaculately managed camping and caravan parks to boutique hotels, you’ll be assured of a top quality welcome whatever your budget and wherever you choose to stay – from decadent and opulent hotels, to the peaceful, tranquil, rural splendour of our stunning five-star holiday home parks.

Breathtaking scenery, fine food and wine, and stunning heritage provide the perfect ingredients for fairy-tale wedding settings, and there is a wide range of stunning venues from which to choose for your special day.

Taste Ribble Valley

Often referred to as the food capital of the north, Ribble Valley has excellent food and drink at its very heart.

Be it beer brewers, cattle raisers or ice cream makers, our local suppliers put their heart and soul into providing fresh, quality food and drink for everyone to enjoy. And it really is “farm-to-table” service here: whether you’re in a tearoom or a restaurant, you’re bound to find locally sourced produce on the menu.

Another defining feature of local food and drink is the incredible variety. Ribble Valley has places for all budgets, and times of day—from Sunday brunches as a group to romantic evening meals for two.

...And the variety doesn’t end here! Chinese, Indian, Italian, and the very best of British are just a few of the endless culinary experiences you can enjoy in Ribble Valley. Come and savour them for yourself!

To learn more about locally sourced food and drink, visit www.ribbonvalleyfoodheaven.com

Stay Ribble Valley

If you are visiting for a wedding and wanting to enjoy rustic grandeur, high-quality food and the fluffiest of eiderdowns, then Ribble Valley’s country hotels and inns are the place for you. Escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life and take advantage of the beautiful, quality accommodation that Ribble Valley has to offer, no matter what time of year.

With an exciting range of places to stay, you will be spoilt for choice. Guest houses, B&Bs and luxurious manor hotels, there is so much to choose from that there is sure to be something to match your every requirement. There is also a wonderful range of self-catering accommodation, including many country cottages which offer flexible booking and are well prepared for parties of wedding guests.

We also have a great range of camping, motorhome and caravan sites in some of the most beautiful locations in the valley. This, together with luxury pods yurts, shepherds’ huts and glamping units, means we can cater for all tastes.

Whether you choose to stay close to one of our charming towns, or hide away in pure peace and tranquillity, you will be surrounded by beautiful views that are guaranteed to take your breath away.

Please note that Ribble Valley is a popular destination and if you are planning to stay in the area for a wedding, we recommend that you confirm your plans for where to stay as soon as possible.
