Ribble Valley, where memories are made!

Fall in love with Ribble Valley

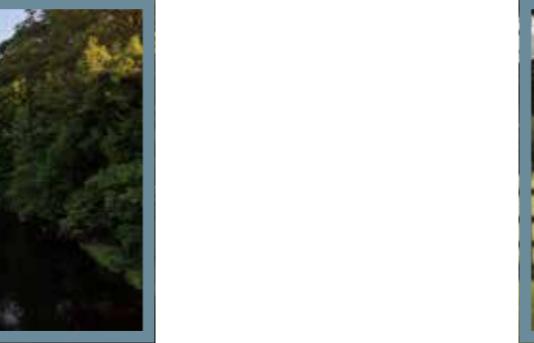

Ribble Valley is one of those places with which you will fall in love, and want to return to again and again. It is acknowledged as one of the most popular places in the country to both live and work, and it is set within a nationally recognised Area of Outstanding Beauty.

Quintessentially English, Ribble Valley represents all that is good about Britain – locally sourced food, rich heritage, strong traditions, stunning landscapes and a very warm welcome to anyone who visits.

With so much on offer, one day in Ribble Valley is simply not enough. But with a range of accommodation from immaculately managed camping and caravan parks to boutique hotels, you'll be assured of a top quality welcome whatever your budget and wherever you choose to stay – from decadent and opulent hotels, to the peaceful, tranquil, rural splendour of our stunning five-star holiday home parks.

Breath-taking scenery, fine food and wine, and rich heritage provide the perfect ingredients for fairy-tale wedding settings, and there is a wide range of stunning venues from which to choose for your special day.

Planning to get married?

Religious ceremony in an approved religious building

- Church of England – Speak to your Vicar who will advise you how to proceed and arrange to call the Banns of Marriage
- Any other denomination (not Church of England) – Speak to your Minister who will advise you what steps to take
- If the Minister advises you that you need a Registrar from Lancashire County Council to attend your ceremony call the contact centre 0300 123 6705 and ask to book a registrar.

A civil ceremony at a Register Office or approved venue

In Ribble Valley, you'll find a fantastic selection of top venues to suit all kinds of wedding styles. Whatever you've got planned for your big day, the registrars from Lancashire Registration Service will do everything they can to help make it just how you imagined.

To book your registrars, simply get in touch with our ceremonies team by sending an enquiry online. Just head to lancashire.gov.uk and search for "ceremonies".

You can book your registrars up to three years in advance. It's a good idea to do this as early as possible to make sure you get the date and time you want. When you book, you'll be told about the legal steps you'll need to follow, the timeframes involved, and the fee you'll need to pay to confirm your booking. If you'd like to check the current fees, please visit our website lancashire.gov.uk and search for "ceremony fees".

For full information go to lancashire.gov.uk and search civil ceremonies
